Sturdy, easy assembly and great value!

Reviewed in India on 6 April 2023

I recently purchased a 3-seater wooden sofa for my parent's house and was initially skeptical about the assembly process. However, I was pleasantly surprised by the overall experience with this product. Firstly, the sofa arrived neatly packaged with no damage, which was a great relief. The seller also provided a 1-year warranty, and all the required screws & bolts were included, along with a spanner and Allen key that were neatly bundled in a pouch. The only con was the size of the ply for the seat was slightly larger, hence had to shave it off a bit (not an expensive or time-consuming job).

The assembly process was quite easy, and it took me only about 15 minutes to understand how to assemble the sofa. After that, it was a breeze to put it together. I was quite impressed with the seller's responsiveness on Amazon, especially when it seemed like the product might be delayed. However, the sofa did arrive on the promised date.

One thing to note is that the seller only offers replacement and not returns. However, given the quality

Not happy.

Reviewed in India on 30 October 2024

The size of the support legs and arm rest wood is not as per the picture shown in the picture. The thickness of the wood is just an inch all over the place.
Felt really bad about the being tricked by the Amazon and the seller..
